Brassworks 4

3 guys and a gal made up Brassworks 4, the most "fun-loving" brass quartet in the country. Together from 1994-2003, Brassworks 4 has entertained hundreds of audiences from New York, NY to San Francisco, CA. Take a "walk" through this photo gallery and share our memories with us. We've had many laughs and smiles along the way. We will always treasure you, our audience - you were a hoot to entertain!

Paul Bara

Paul Bara, founding member of Brassworks 4, was born and raised in Jersey City, NJ. He studied under Ardash Marderosian at Roosevelt University in Chicago where he earned his BM in 1978. His studies continued in New York with John Swallow and Per Brevig. From 1980 to 1992, Mr. Bara was principal trombonist with the New Amsterdam Symphony Orchestra. As a freelance player, he performed with New York Gilbert & Sullivan Players, United Nations Symphony, Brooklyn College Symphony and numerous Off-Broadway productions. After operating a piano rebuilding business for twelve years, he and his wife Deborah "escaped" to the west. They now reside in Aztec, NM. Paul owns and operates "Baratone," piano tuning and rebuilding. He teaches trombone, euphonium and tuba at Ft. Lewis College in Durango, CO.

Michael (Mick) Hesse
